

Movie Restrictions

R-rated movies may not be checked out to anyone under 17 years old.

Parents may elect to allow their child, under the age of 17, the ability to check out movies rated PG or PG-13 by indicating on the library card registration form. Otherwise, children under age 13 may only check out movies rated G. Children ages 13-16 may also check out PG movies.

Student cards are restricted to G and PG movies regardless of age.
